Additional Availability Comments

Online information available 24/7

Little People of America offers support and information to people of short stature and their families. Short stature is generally caused by a medical condition known as dwarfism (adults 4'10" and under).

The organization offers information on medical issues, employment, education, disability rights, adoption of short-stature children, clothing, adaptive devices, and parenting. Offers newsletter, local chapters, district, regional, and national conventions, educational scholarships, medical assistance grants, and access to the medical advisory board.
