The Prime Time Program at Randolph College serves degree-seeking adults (24 or older) who wish to return to college to pursue a bachelor's degree, teacher licensure program, or certificate of major programs. The program offers support, encouragement, and assistance needed to make the return to college both smooth and exciting. Each student is provided a highly personalized education reinforced by experienced staff who are sensitive to the challenges facing older students.

A strong support system is provided for the non traditional student.
