Lupus Foundation offers a network of support to lupus patients and support groups for all lupus patients. Informal peer counseling program on the website.

LupusConnect™ is an online lupus community where individuals with lupus and their loved ones can engage with others like them to share experiences, find emotional support and discuss practical insights for coping with the daily challenges of the disease. It's an easy-to-use, online platform that encourages its community members to ask questions, reply to posts and read about others' experiences in a safe and comforting community. There is no charge to join LupusConnect.
