Mary Washington Healthcare Hospice has grief counselors and volunteers at Mary Washington Grief Support Services who are specifically trained to listen closely to your concerns, answer your questions, and offer encouragement, empathy and support. If you need help coping with grief, we are open to all community members, regardless of whether your loved one was a patient with us. Call 540.741.3580 for more information.

Support groups may meet in person or virtually, including grief support groups for a child, and a weekend camp for teens. Visit List of Support Groups.
