The L. Douglas Wilder Library and Learning Resource Center is a technologically advanced facility offering a media center, numerous study areas, a computer laboratory, and an expanded capacity for books and other resource materials. The library is home to several rare collections on slavery in America, African American children's books, and photographic images of African Americans. The library's media center provides audiovisual services to students and faculty, including films, video cassettes, laser discs, slides, filmstrip sets, audio cassettes, and phono discs.

The Library offers various events throughout the school year, including a newsletter, Library Club, and Friends of the Library.
