Virginia Commonwealth University is dedicated to educating full-time and part-time students of all ages and backgrounds in an atmosphere of free inquiry and scholarship so they may realize their full potential as informed, productive citizens with a lifelong commitment to learning and service. The university is committed to providing access to its programs, services, and activities. While some historic houses are not physically accessible to persons with disabilities, many are. If special accommodations are needed by persons with disabilities, programs, services, and activities will be relocated upon request or alternative accommodations will be provided.
