Tompkins-McCaw Library for the Health Sciences. Library located in downtown Richmond on the Medical College of Virginia campus of Virginia Commonwealth of Virginia. The library subscribes to nearly 2,400 medical & health-related print and electronic journals. Current journal issues are located on the first floor. Bound volumes are shelved alphabetically by title on several floors of the library. The circulating book collection is located on the second floor. Multimedia materials and government documents are in the basement. Photocopiers are available in the basement and on the first floor for self-service copying. Copies of articles may be requested through interlibrary loan or the library's fee-based photocopy service.

Go to Service Desk to ask questions, borrow and return books, pick up materials requested through interlibrary loan or review materials that have been placed on reserve by your instructor. The Service Desk is where you will pay for library fines, the fee-based photocopy service, the poster printing service and for media purchases such as CDs or DVDs. You can also obtain information about group study or anatomical model rooms which are available for use on the second floor.
