The U.S. Department of Justice provides information about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) through a toll-free ADA Information Line. This service permits businesses, State and local governments, or others to call and ask questions about general or specific ADA requirements including questions about the ADA Standards for Accessible Design. Information is also available on the Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division's ADA website.

Publications are available in standard print as well as large print, audiotape, Braille, and computer disk for people with disabilities.
