Families Anonymous offers a twelve-step self-help group for parents, family members, and friends of persons who use and abuse drugs and alcohol, or who have related behavioral problems. Call for referral to a local group. Members lead and run weekly groups which may feature guest speakers. Excellent literature is available.

There are no fees or dues and each group is self supporting. Most of the literature is free.

Call for information about Zoom meetings, E-Meetings, literature, events and more.
