Patient Advocate Foundation (PAF) is a national non-profit organization which offers a Co-Pay Relief (CPR) program. The program is a patient assistance program which provides direct financial assistance to qualified Americans, including those with Medicare Part D coverage, assisting them with prescription drug co-payments their insurance requires relative to their diagnosis.

Patients being treated for breast, lung, prostate, kidney, colon, pancreatic and/or head/neck cancers, malignant brain tumor, lymphoma, sarcoma, diabetes, multiple myeloma, selected autoimmune disorders and secondary issues as a result of chemotherapy treatment are eligible. Continue to check the Co-Pay Relief website or call to see if funding has become available for your disease.

Visit the Co-Pay Relief page for more information.

English, Spanish, AT&T language line. Voice mail after hours and is checked regularly.
