The Detoxification Program at Richmond Behavioral Health Authority (RBHA), North Campus is a 24 hour, 12-bed unit which provides voluntary social, and medical detoxification services to individuals experiencing chronic or sub-acute intoxication and /or addiction. The course of the detox regimen typically ranges from three to seven days. During this time, clients receive alleviation of symptoms of physical and psychological withdrawal in a supportive, comfortable and safe environment.

All medications required for detoxification or stabilization of other medical problems are administered by the medical staff in accordance with the established withdrawal protocols for alcohol and other drugs.
