Catholic Charities Diocese of Arlington (CCDA), Family Services Counseling provides outpatient counseling services to individuals, couples, parent-child relationships, and families. Occasionally, CCDA offers group counseling for a variety of issues such as separation and divorce, grief and loss, anger and behavior management, social skills, and other topics. CCDA also provides consultation to parishes and schools upon request.

Counseling is available for issues such as:

- Adolescence,
- Anxiety,
- Depression,
- Grief and loss,
- Marital and premarital concerns,
- Parenting concerns,
- Separation and divorce.

The Family Services program is currently available at 21 locations across the diocese where clinicians serve those in need of counseling. Call or visit the website for nearby location information.
