The Virginia State Bar Speakers Bureau provides a speaker on a variety of subjects: adopting a child, buying a home, making a will, medical directives, estate planning, etc. As a free public service, the Bar offers schools, community groups, or civic organizations an opportunity to listen to a legal expert who will provide general background information on any number of important law-related topics that affect our lives.

Go To Topics Suggested for Civic Groups to select a topic and then complete the request form that will be found on the same page. Please allow a minimum of four weeks' notice.
