Camp Bruce McCoy is an annual 2 week recreational camp for adults with brain injuries. Camp activities will be adapted to each person's ability and interest and designed to provide challenges, build confidence, and foster new friendships. Usually held in May or early June. Approximately 40 spaces per week. The camp is held in Chesapeake, Virginia, but all intake is done at the Richmond agency location. Call for details.

Toll free family helpline is 1-800-444-6443 to assist with general information and specific requests. Also can send email to info@biav.net.
