DeafBlind Camp of Maryland offers a week of campers ranging from age 18 to 90 years. They enjoy fellowship, fun and reunion. All campers have a combination of vision and hearing loss, many are totally deaf and blind.

Volunteers at the camp are called Support Service Providers and ensure that every camper experiences camp to its fullest. Through this partnership, campers have the opportunity to engage in activities such as boating, canoeing, bingo, archery and much more.

Informational activities such as the Technology Expo to showcase new devices is available.
