Wynns Family Psychology offers a social skills group to children who lack these skills. Kids with learning disabilities, academic failures, aggressiveness, sensory integration difficulties, Asperger's syndrome, autism spectrum disorder, neurological disorders can be taught social skills by trained professionals.

During the summer, we also offer the following camps (usually both are offered in the summer and winter):

- Children's Social Skills Summer Day camp (ages 8-13)
- Young Children's Social Skills Summer Day camp (ages 4-7)
- Teen Activity and Life Skills Summer Day camp (Ages 13-18)
- Middle School Social Skills Summer Day camp (ages 11-14)
