GoodSkills Literacy Corps provides free tutoring to adults in the areas of reading, writing, basic math and basic computer skills. Tutors and students are matched based on schedule, geographic availability, student preference and other considerations.

The GoodSkills Literacy Corps is an AmeriCorps State program. For more information, visit Rappahannock Goodwill Industries website or Facebook page.

Tutoring is at a public location mutually- determined by the tutor and the student. Many tutors meet at the Goodwill Community Resource Center, 4701 Market Street in Fredericksburg, which is near a Fred bus stop.
