Adolescent Sexual Harm Program is a multi-systemic, community-based treatment alternative which focuses on the treatment of sexually abusive behavior patterns within the context of family and community. Adolescent Sexual Harm Program offers a comprehensive community-based model focused on public safety, family trauma, personal responsibility, and relapse prevention. Individualized services are planned and assessed from a developmental context and include individual, family and community interventions. All treatment is planned and supervised by a Certified Sex Offender Treatment Professional (CSOTP). Treatment includes:

- In-home family and individual therapy,
- Outpatient individual therapy,
- Group therapy,
- Therapeutic mentoring,
- Relapse prevention and aftercare services,
- Surveillance home electronic monitoring (if necessary).
