The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) offers tax enforcement, information, and assistance to individuals. The website provides information, instructions, and tax forms for download. Online website services allow taxpayers to check refund status, file or e-file returns, find a local Taxpayer Assistance Center Office, and more.

In-person assistance is available at local IRS offices by calling (844) 545-5640 to schedule an appointment.

The IRS also administers free tax help programs including Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) that have nationwide sites for in-person tax filing assistance.
