The Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) offers a Driver Improvement Program that rewards safe drivers and warns potentially unsafe drivers in advance. It helps educate drivers who have developed risky driving practices and it takes dangerous drivers off the road

There are several reasons for attending a Driver Improvement Program. Learn about the Driver Improvement Program and reasons for attending a Clinic.

When you satisfactorily complete a driver improvement clinic, you'll learn defensive driving techniques that can help you avoid and prevent crashes. These eight-hour classroom sessions cost no more than $100 and are offered at sites around the state and as an online course on the Internet. If the course is court-directed, contact the court to be sure it will accept a computer-based course. Also, if you are under age 20, you must enroll in a clinic that provides classroom instruction.
