Meaningful Day Behavioral, LLC's mission is to teach and implement strategies that decrease challenging behaviors that cause barriers to working, saving, and social growth. They are person-centered, and team-oriented, and have over 15 years of experience in helping individuals with disabilities find community-based employment. Their vision is that everyone can identify preference and purpose and with the right support, have a meaningful day.

They provide positive behavioral consultation that focuses on fostering communication in ways that result in progress and life change. Behaviors are a way of communicating a desire, wish, or feeling and many individuals benefit from their support team learning to understand what is being said while the individual benefits from learning replacement behaviors that express their feelings or thoughts in ways that are not destructive, aggressive, or disruptive. Also specializing in helping to minimize behaviors that cause threats to obtaining or maintaining employment.
