TrustPoint Residential Services is a residential group home specializing in developmental disabilities. Experienced in Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), exceptional behaviors, pica (appetite for non-food items), and others. We are constantly creating new opportunities for individuals so please contact us since some options under development may not be listed on our website.

TrustPoint Residential Services requires the following documentation for new referrals from the case manager or support coordinator assigned to the individual:

- Psychological evaluation,
- Current physical,
- List of medications,

- Supports Intensity Scale (SIS),
- Risk assessment
- Virginia Individual Developmental Disability Eligibility Survey (VIDES),
- Person-centered plan.

New opportunities for individuals are under development, so please contact us since some options may not be included on our website. The TrustPoint Service Manager answers questions from people who are considering becoming Sponsored Residential Providers, or questions about participating in service fairs or speaking at events.
