

Regional Implementation Teams (RIT's) lead local/regional efforts to educate individuals, families, and other stakeholders about available housing options and resources for the DD community. Regional Implementation Teams work to address barriers to securing and maintaining housing and identify resources to help overcome these barriers. RIT's meet once a month and are present in all five regions of the state.

To find out more about your Regional Implementation Team, contact your Developmental Disabilities Services Housing Team member.

View PDF