Restoration Healthcare Services, Inc. offers supportive in-home support for children, adolescents, and adults.

Services include those to help maintain independence and develop higher levels of independence when appropriate. Assistive training can be provided to children, youth, and adults in all areas of life, depending on their individual needs and level of accomplishment.

The staff works with each adult to help with skills of independence in housekeeping, laundry, cooking, money management, personal choices, health and safety issues, mobility, self-medication administration, and social skills.
